SECURITY & ACCESS UPDATE

- Individuals with a Common Access Card (CAC), Government ID, Retired Military ID, or Fort Shafter DBIDS (other installations not accepted) can show their badge at the main Fort Shafter Gate (Buckner Gate) and will be granted access to Fort Shafter. You do not have to go to Tripler to get a guest pass.
- IMPORTANT UPDATE! If you submit your PII security information to us by Friday, March 27, 2026, our Event Access List will be at the Tripler Pass & ID Office. The Tripler (Jarrett White Rd) exit is just past Fort Shafter. Because of world events, and heightened Force Protection Conditions, all non-badged guests must go to the Tripler Pass & ID Office to get a pass. Your pass will be good from April 14 - April 16, 2026. Directions to the Tripler Pass & ID Office are below. We will provide everyone on our access list the official visit request letter via email before April 14th. You need to show a digital copy of the letter to the guard at the Tripler Pass & ID Office. Please have your Real ID Driver's License, Valid Vehicle Registration (or Rental Car Agreement), Current Safety Inspection, and Proof of Insurance to show the Pass & ID Office guard.

- The Tripler Pass & ID Office is open 24/7. To avoid lines and delays get your pass on April 14, 2026.
- NOTE THAT THE TRUSTED TRAVELER PROGRAM IS SUSPENDED: The Trusted Traveler Program, which previously allowed CAC holders to "vouch" for passengers without individual passes, has been suspended at U.S. Army Garrison Hawaii (USAG-HI) installations due to increased security measures. This means every adult in the vehicle (18+) must have their own valid Department of Defense (DoD) ID or an approved visitor pass to enter.
