

LTC Tabber Mintz, USA
Director
U.S. Army Regional Cyber Center - Pacific

Lieutenant Colonel (LTC) Tabber N. Mintz graduated from California Polytechnic State University San Luis Obispo in 2005 with a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineer and obtained his Master of Science in Information Technology. He was commissioned in the Signal Corps and later transferred into Functional Area 24 – Telecommunications Systems Engineer in 2010, which converted to Functional Area 26A – Network Systems Engineer in 2016.

His previous units of assignment include C Co 82nd Division Special Troops Battalion, G6 82nd Airborne Division, 11th Theater Tactical Signal Brigade, Joint Network Cyber Center – Afghanistan, Cyber Protection Brigade, and the Regional Cyber Center Pacific. His previous positions include Signal Support Platoon Leader, Division Network Operations (NetOPS) OIC, Brigade Telecommunications Systems Engineer, Theater Cyber Center Senior Network Engineer, Computer Network Defense Manager, Brigade Analytic Support Officer, and Regional Cyber Center Telecommunications Systems Engineer. He has deployed to Afghanistan (3x).

LTC Mintz' military education includes the Signal Officer Basic Course, Airborne School, Telecommunications Systems Engineering Course, Signal Captains Career Course, Army Command and Staff General College, and Joint Network Attack Course.

His awards and decorations include Bronze Star (2 OLC), Meritorious Service Medal (2 OLC), Joint Service Achievement Medal, Army Achievement Medal (1 OLC), and the Parachutist Badge.

LTC Mintz is married with two children and one dog.